

LEASE AGREEMENT

This agreement made this 15th day of May 1952 between [redacted] hereinafter called the lessor and

[redacted] hereinafter called the lessee, witness:

1. (a) The lessor hereby grants and the lessee hereby accepts a lease of the premises located at [redacted]

for a term of 1 year beginning 15 May 1952 and ending 15 May 1953 at a monthly rate of [redacted].

~~(or the equivalent [redacted] rate of exchange [redacted] (12 May 52))~~

(b) The method of paying the monthly rate will be determined by the parties hereto and will become a part of this agreement.

2. OPTION: The lessee shall have the option of renewing the lease for a ~~12 months~~ period upon the termination of this present agreement at a rental to be decided upon at the time by the parties. This means that if the lessor intends to rent the premises again the lessee shall have the option before all others of renewing his lease. If the lessor intends to dispose of his property or occupy it himself these two contingencies shall be the only conditions preventing the lessee from from exercising his option. The lessee shall signify his intention of exercising his option by notice to the lessor, verbal or written, at least one month prior to the expiration of the lease.

3. The lessee: agrees to pay the rent as heretofore set down; to maintain the premises including the surrounding garden area in safe state and repair, except for major repairs necessitated by flood, fire, storm, earthquake or other act of God. The lessee shall restore the premises to the lessor at the termination of the lease, it being understood that any renovations made with the consent of the lessor as agreed in the next

Approved For Release 2005/07/13 : CIA-RDP78-04983A000200090007-1 paragraph following shall remain and the lessee will not be responsible for removing such renovations that have the nature of fixtures to the land.

In the event of an unavoidable disaster which disaster results in the premises being in different state than when received, the lease expires during the continuance of this condition, the lessee shall in no way be liable.

4. The lessor agrees to allow the lessee to make such renovations to the house and grounds that the lessee feels necessary, at the lessee's expense; such renovations shall be made only with the consent of the lessor; once made it will not be necessary for the lessee to remove them at the termination of the lease; it is further agreed by the lessor that the lessee shall have the power of sub-leasing the premises to anyone whom he desires and that the requirements of law and custom for the obtaining of the consent of the lessor to such sub-lease are hereby expressly waived; that the lessee shall also have the power of transferring and/or assigning the lease to a third party or parties and that in the event of such transfer or or assignment the same conditions shall be binding on lessor and lessee (the new lessee) as were binding upon the original parties to this agreement.

5. In the event of disaster to the property of such a nature as to make it uninhabitable and caused by a medium outside the control of the lessee, such as flood, storm, fire, earthquake, or other act of God, the lessee will not be liable for rent until such time as the premises are again inhabitable, the responsibility of restoration in this case resting with the lessor.

6. It is understood that the house will be rented unfurnished and that all items of furniture without exception are the property of the lessee solely.

Approved For Release 2005/07/13 : CIA-RDP78-04983A000200090007-1
Specifically included in this list are electric and/or gas stoves, electric space, room, and hot water heaters, and refrigerators. If the premises include furniture, a list thereof will be attached to this agreement and the provisions of the first sentence of this paragraph will not apply. Instead the lessor and lessee will each retain possession of his own furniture.

7. The lessee will assume all expenses for utilities such as water, electricity, gas and telephone during the actual occupancy of the premises up to and including the termination date of the lease.

8. The lessor hereby grants, guarantees and warrants that he is the sole and lawful owner of the property, or if not, has the lawful written power of attorney to make his acts as agent of the owner or owners binding on the principals.

9. It is further agreed that any changes in this lease must be made in writing and signed by both parties or their lawful agents; that this is the only agreement between the parties and that no recognition of verbal statements may be had except as to the method of paying the rent as explained in Paragraph 2(b) above. It is also agreed by the lessor that any covenants, restrictions, easements, liens and/or encumbrances on the property shall be the sole responsibility of the lessor and any liability incurred in this connection, or any legal action predicated thereon shall rest solely with the lessor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunder set their hands and seals this 13 day of May 1952.

[Redacted Signature Box]

LESSOR

[Redacted Signature Box]

STAT

STAT